

JESUS JUSTICE

advocacy conference

Jesus and Justice: Believe! Pray! Act!

Commit acts of justice. Advocacy changes the world!

Young Adult Advocacy Conference for College Students and Seminarians

Oct. 20-22, 2023 | Presbyterian Center, 100 Witherspoon St., Louisville | Free to All!

Does God care about injustice? Yes! At the conference you will explore the connection between faith and justice. It is important to go to church, but it is more important to be the church. Faith means little without action (James 2). To follow Jesus involves a commitment to care for others and to act on their behalf. Anytime anyone is mistreated, God is mistreated.

College students, seminarians, and young adults in or near Louisville or Southern Indiana are invited to attend in person. If you're farther away, join us online on Saturday, Oct. 21, at 9 a.m.

- Friday: Registration and Worship
- Saturday: 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.: Plenary, Panel and Workshops
 - A plenary of local activists
 - Voices of young adults committed to justice
 - Lunch Provided
 - Workshops on how to engage in your school and community
- Sunday: Closing Worship and an Action

Upcoming Conferences: Save the dates!

October 20-22: Louisville | October 2024: Charlotte, NC | October 2025: East Lansing, MI (Michigan State University)

This event is hosted by the PC(USA) Advocacy Offices (Office of Public Witness and Presbyterian Ministry at the United Nations), which are part of the Compassion, Peace & Justice ministries of the Presbyterian Mission Agency. All young people are invited to attend, regardless of their faith background.