Prepared in the wake of the Israel-Hamas war Fall 2023

Learning & Action Tools

- 1) Shared Values Facilitation Guide – This guide helpfully goes through how to set up a safe space and is a basic guide on learning how to lead interfaith dialogue and conversation around shared values.
- 2) #Interfaith: Engaging Religious Diversity Online
- 3) BRIDGE Module – Our Building Regular Interfaith Dialogue through Generous Engagement curriculum contains personal reflection opportunities, engaging activities, and opportunities to explore our own biases. This curriculum is designed to be used by higher ed staff or faculty with other higher ed staff/faculty as the learners (i.e., it's not student-facing).
- 4) Skills for Bridging the Gap curriculum (particularly Module 2, Module 4)
 - a. Bridgebuilder's Posture Toward Feedback
 - b. Habits of Effective Bridgebuilders
- 5) Foundations of Interfaith Leadership – A self-paced, online course for anyone who wants to develop the vision, knowledge, and skills required to contribute to the realization of a truly interfaith America. In the current moment – when it's easy to feel powerless – exploring this course is something anyone can do (right now) to move forward in a positive direction.
